REGISTRATION FORM
APIS PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAY

Friday 27 March, 2015
8.30am-4.00pm
Guildford Grammar School
$300 for members
$150 for students
Morning tea and lunch provided

The Association for Philosophy in Schools (WA) is hosting its inaugural Professional Development Day for all members.

PROGRAM

8.30am- 9.00am  Welcome and Registration
9.00am - 9.30am  Keynote address by Mr Brian Poxon, Head of Philosophical, Religious and Ethical Perspectives and Head of Social & Emotional Learning at Wesley College
9.30am - 10.30am  Session 1: Q and A with the authors of the Philosophy and Ethics Resource Book, Dr Alan Tapper and Stephen Millet

10.30am-11.00am  Morning Tea
11.00am- 12.00pm  Session 2: Approach to the courses and how to plan, with Dr Raymond Driehuis, Social Science & Philosophy & Ethics Teacher at Perth Modern
12.00pm -1.00pm  Session 3: COI'S: how to engage students with content, with Mr Matthew Wills, Coordinator of Philosophy & Ethics at Hale School

1.00pm-1.45pm  Lunch
1.45pm-2.45pm  Session 3: Assessment (what the marking keys mean and how the students should approach them, cross marking some work) with Mr Dominic Hodnett, Head of Philosophy at Christ Church Grammar School
2.45pm-3.30 pm  Session 4: Resources (What a good resources is, sharing resources, how to create your own)
3.30pm-4.00pm  Networking, nibbles and drinks

Attendees can register and pay online, using a credit card, at www.ggs.wa.edu.au/APIS. Registrations close at 5.00pm on Friday 13 March 2015.
A map of the venue and further information will be emailed upon registration.

Anyone seeking further information can contact Ms Selinna Forward, Director, Service at Guildford Grammar School, on selinna.forward@ggs.wa.edu.au or (08) 9377 8542.