PTCWA MEMBERSHIP:

The Professional Teaching Council of Western Australia (PTCWA) is the peak body representing voluntary professional education associations within Western Australia. As an umbrella body representing individual associations, PTCWA represents over 9,000 teachers across all sectors and all learning areas.

The key aim of PTCWA is to promote professionalism in teaching through an enhancement of the work of professional education associations. It provides a wider context for the work of these associations through facilitation of networking and communication between individual associations.

Professional education associations are autonomous groups of educators with a particular area of educational interest. Association members are brought together by their passion for education and their desire to enhance quality teaching and learning through continued growth and development of their craft in an area of shared interest.

PTCWA MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS:

- Public Liability Insurance provided through the PTCWA insurance policy – providing cover for all standard Association events (Optional – an additional fee applies – See Tax Invoice);
- Opportunity to be listed on PTCWA's centralised listing of all professional education associations in the state;
- Assistance with online communication – email and web site development;
- Professional Learning opportunities on a range of topics;
- Contact with the wider educational community including opportunities to share issues of common interest;
- Access to National projects and their impact on Associations and teaching practice;
- PTCWA will lobby on behalf of professional associations at both the State and National levels;
- PTCWA will act as a conduit to the National Body (Australian Professional Teachers Association) on issues and concerns to members;
- PTCWA provides a combined voice for State and National educational issues;
- PTCWA offers an opportunity for networking and collaboration between member associations;
